

Adopt A Classroom

The AEF Adopt-A-Classroom program makes it easy for members of the community to support teachers and students. We direct 100% of each $500 “adoption” donation to the teacher or program leader who uses the funds to purchase critical resources and materials or to fund field trips, assemblies or other learning impact programs.

Adoptions have been used for things like purchasing new playground equipment for an elementary school, funding a field trip to the Chabot Space Center, and buying vitally needed books for teenagers.

The Alameda Education Foundation directs each Adopt-a-Class donation to teachers not yet adopted as determined by need, or donors may request a particular teacher or program for adoption.

Each classroom receives a certificate upon adoption naming the donor, and teachers report back to AEF on how the funds were used. We also welcome our donors to join us when we make the adoption presentation to the class.
